Although the damage to the sent images is perfectly recognizable, images of the expanded escape are required. Despite the various demands, he could not receive the reason for this. I need the vehicle and certainly do not expand the escape to a photo and another until I receive a replacement. To break the time until the usable exchange, I wanted to repair the escape with the kit without need. Then they told me that my replacement claim was then compensated, since the escape was repaired. For me, it seems you want to put your own complaint. Autodoc GmbH on 10/10/2022, 11: 05Sehr Thomas, thank you very much for your comments. The 4x sent the same photos, to a total of 6 different editors, unsuccessfully, because they could not distinguish two different article numbers from each other. Unlike advertising, the return had to be paid. (At the cost of 19.50) We're sitting. I suspect this is intended and has a method. The Consumer Center was connected. Anyone who asked for a good nerve and has a lot of writing that doesn't work. We don't ask for anything else. There are better and more competent and competent spare parts on the network.
